

SPOOKIEST HAUNTED HOUSES IN TEXAS & OKLAHOMA

When October rolls around, haunted houses, eerie attractions and Halloween celebrations take over communities across Texas and Oklahoma. Whether you're looking for an intense night of scares or a spooky experience to enjoy with friends and family, there are plenty of ways to get into the Halloween spirit without traveling far from home.

From Fort Worth and Dallas to Plano, Denton and communities around Oklahoma City, these haunted attractions offer plenty of thrills for those brave enough to step inside.

TEXAS

HANGMAN'S HOUSE OF HORRORS – FORT WORTH, TX

For those who like their Halloween nights seriously scary, Hangman's House of Horrors has been a Fort Worth Halloween tradition for decades. The attraction is located on a historic 100-plus-year-old property and combines dark sets, live actors and plenty of unexpected scares. The 2026 season includes select nights from late September through Halloween, with extended hours on many October weekends.

CUTTING EDGE HAUNTED HOUSE – FORT WORTH, TX

Located near downtown Fort Worth, Cutting Edge Haunted House turns a former industrial setting into an intense, multi-story haunted attraction. With live actors, special effects and multiple themed areas, it's designed for visitors looking for a high-energy Halloween experience. The attraction is open on select nights throughout the 2026 Halloween season.

JUNKYARD HAUNTED HOUSE – DALLAS, TX

Junkyard Haunted House brings a large-scale Halloween experience to Dallas with multiple haunted houses spread across the historic grounds of Old City Park. The 2026 attraction features seven haunted houses across 21 acres, combining historic buildings, live actors and special effects for an immersive night of scares. The Junkyard Haunted House is scheduled to open October 3 and operate throughout the Halloween season.

DARK HOUR HAUNTED HOUSE – PLANO, TX

Dark Hour Haunted House returns to Plano for the 2026 season with elaborate theatrical sets, creatures, animatronics and immersive special effects. This year's experience introduces new areas, including Medusa's Lair and Strega Chamber, along with an expanded goblin-filled labyrinth. The attraction opens September 19 and operates on select nights through November 13.

CREEKSIDE MANOR HAUNTED HOUSE – MIDLOTHIAN, TX

Creekside Manor offers an old-fashioned haunted-house experience in Midlothian for visitors ready to enter the manor — if they dare. The attraction operates Friday and Saturday nights throughout October, from 7:30 p.m. until midnight. With its dark atmosphere and traditional haunted-house scares, it's a fun option for a spooky night out close to home.

THE PARKER HOUSE – DENTON, TX

The Parker House combines a haunted walkthrough with an interactive zombie experience and Psycho Circus attraction. The main haunted house takes visitors through graveyards, wooded areas and unsettling scenes inspired by the Parker House story. For families with younger Halloween fans, the attraction also offers select “Not So Scary” nights with toned-down scares, activities and candy.

OKLAHOMA

GUTHRIE HAUNTED SCAREGROUNDS – GUTHRIE, OK

Guthrie Haunted Scaregrounds delivers more than 30,000 square feet of indoor and outdoor scares just north of Oklahoma City. The attraction combines multiple haunted areas and plenty of frightening surprises, making it a popular choice for those looking for a traditional Halloween haunt. During October 2026, the ticket window is scheduled to run from 7 p.m. to midnight on open nights.

DEAD MAN’S CROSSING – OKLAHOMA CITY, OK

Located in Oklahoma City’s Automobile Alley, Dead Man’s Crossing puts a unique spin on the traditional haunted house. Created by the team behind Baker Street Escapes, the attraction combines live actors with an interactive, gamified experience where visitors must navigate the attraction while trying to avoid being marked for death. It returns for weekends throughout October.

CHAMBER OF TERROR HAUNTED HOUSE – MOORE, OK

Just south of Oklahoma City, Chamber of Terror features four different haunted themes for the 2026 season: Piggy’s Slaughter House, Sleepy Meadows Asylum, Burial Grounds and Big Top Terror. With multiple environments to explore, it offers plenty of variety for anyone looking to make a night of Halloween scares. The attraction is scheduled for select nights throughout October, with extended hours on October 30 and 31.

A FAMILY-FRIENDLY HALLOWEEN OPTION

OKANA’S BOO BASH – OKLAHOMA CITY, OK

Not every Halloween outing has to be terrifying. OKANA’s Boo Bash offers a family-friendly way to celebrate Halloween with resort-wide trick-or-treating, fall festival games, inflatables, pumpkin painting, face painting, live entertainment and a family-friendly haunted house. The 2026 event is scheduled for October 31 from 6–9 p.m.

BEFORE YOU GO

Haunted attraction schedules, ticket availability and admission policies can change, especially around Halloween weekend. Before heading out, visit the attraction’s official website for the latest information on dates, hours, tickets, age recommendations and weather-related updates.

Whether you prefer elaborate haunted houses, creepy outdoor experiences or a family-friendly Halloween celebration, October offers plenty of opportunities to make a few spooky memories close to home.

At Designated Title, we love highlighting the communities that make our region feel like home — even when those communities get a little spooky in October.
